

THE DEFICIT GROWS

Shortage of Ex-Treasurer Woodruff of Arkansas.

SPECIAL TRANSACTIONS IN STATE SCRIPT REVEALED.

Report of the Special Master in Chancery Uncovered Additional Liabilities—Book-keeper Bay Assisting the Prosecution—Bondsman Liable for the Full Amount—A Sensational Case.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 16.—Thomas H. Simms, Special Master in Chancery, filed his report in the Chancery Court this morning in the case of the State against the bondsmen of ex-State Treasurer Woodruff. The report contains over 1,000 pages of typewritten matter and covers the entire ground. Woodruff's shortage according to previous investigation, was fixed at about $30,000. The report of the Master in Chancery increases this amount by $45,877. It was 10 o'clock when Simms and Messrs. Shoppack and Whitting, the two expert accountants who assisted him in the investigation, entered the court-room. Only a few persons were present, nearly all of whom were prominent members of the bar. Mr. Simms gave a verbal report of his work, which was interesting, and contained much startling information. The hours were consumed in presenting to the court the synopsis of his labors, which covers a period of three months. He explained cases in which Woodruff had received credit for certain scrips and again presented such securities, demanding credit in currency for them. He reviewed the testimony of James L. Bay, Maj. Woodruff's private bookkeeper, in which the latter related the details of a certain scrip transaction which reflects seriously upon the honesty of the defaulting ex-treasurer. It was the most startling feature of the report.

It appears from the evidence that Woodruff gave to Bay, about a year ago, several thousand dollars in scrip to be sold for him. The market price of the scrip was 35 cents, face and interest, yet Mr. Bay sold it for 75 cents. A broker by the name of Spears purchased it. He suspected that something was wrong about the scrip, and before he paid the money to Bay he obtained a written certificate from Woodruff, through Bay, guaranteeing his right to dispose of the securities. In authorizing the sale Bay swears that Woodruff asked him to request the purchaser not to place it upon the market before the expiration of a year.

"I am in the line of trouble," Woodruff said. "I assured my bondsmen that I would turn over to them all the property I had in the world, and if they find out I am holding out this scrip on them, they will drop me like a hot potato." On the other hand, when Woodruff was confronted with the testimony, the Special Master said he repudiated his signature to the paper given to Spears and denied having been connected with any such transaction. Mr. Simms says there is no doubt whatever, but the testimony given by Bay is correct in every detail.

Spears sent a scrip to Louisville to be forwarded by two banks in that city to Little Rock for collection. Several months ago the scrip was received at the German National Bank for collection. Some of Woodruff's bondsmen were directors in the German Bank, and by then the scrip was attached, and the matter is now in the courts. Mr. Simms in his report says that he considers the scrip the property of the State, and that Woodruff had no right to sell it.

According to this report the sureties on Woodruff's bonds, during the second, fourth and fifth terms will be required to pay this additional deficit of $45,877. In making his report Mr. Simms said that he was a lifelong friend of Maj. Woodruff, was much over-come. In concluding his remarks he said:

"As God is my judge there is not enough money in Arkansas to induce me to say what I have said about Maj. Woodruff in this report. If I did not feel that the facts brought out did not fully warrant and justify it."

On the 15th of April a jury declared that ex-treasurer Woodruff was not guilty of embezzlement and the conversion of State funds to his own use. This was the second trial of Woodruff for the offense charged in the indictment. The first trial of the criminal case against Woodruff took place last November, and on the 15th of that month the jury, after being out some time, failed to agree on a verdict, and were discharged. They stood six to six. A new trial was then ordered.

On the 25th of last February Attorney-General Atkinson, acting under instruction from Gov. Rogers, filed a suit in Chancery Court against Woodruff and his bondsmen. Woodruff was Treasurer of Arkansas five terms, and every bondsmen on each bond is made defendant in the suit. The sureties are all prominent citizens residing in different sections of the State. The amount sued for is $150,000. The complaint is a very lengthy document, and after citing the facts of Woodruff's election and qualifying as State Treasurer, alleges that on Jan. 12, 1891, Woodruff, in his capacity as Treasurer, received from his predecessor in office a large amount of money and securities, as follows:

In United States currency.....$ 99,852 07
In State scrip.....671,131 19
In Auditor's warrants.....12,383 49
In 10 per cent funding bonds.....328,070 99
In real estate bonds, coupons and interest thereon.....69,916 80
In levee bonds and coupons.....4,950 85
In thirty years 5 per cent State bonds.....291,000 00
In 100 per cent bonds.....125,500 00
In reclamation certificates.....78 00
Auditor's swamp-land warrants.....396 38
City scrip and other city indebtedness.....40,420 48

This civil suit now pending in the Chancery Court against Woodruff and his sureties for the recovery of the money claimed by the State due from bonds and scrips is an important proceeding, as it brings in as defendants some of the most prominent people in Arkansas, among whom are the following, all of whom were on the bonds of the Treasurer at different times:

W. E. Woodruff, Jr., A. C. Brewer, John Channing, H. H. Crawford, Hugh A. Dinmore, F. T. Vaughan, A. Godbold, W. P. Homan, A. M. Johnson, Fred Kramer, Dean Adams, M. L. Bell, James Cool, B. ## GRAND LEADER MILLINERY OPENING.

A Bower of Beauty and Feminine Flair—A Great Thrill.

The first fall and winter opening of the millinery department of the Grand Leader, 815, 817, 819 and 821 North Broadway, took place to-day and hundreds of ladies in search of the latest thing in feminine hats and bonnets thronged the aisles. They were enchanted by the hundreds of trimmed hats, many of them imported from Paris for the occasion, and charmed by the magnificent exposition of chrysantheums.

The management of the Grand Leader in their desire to crown their initial fall millinery opening with success purchased the chrysantheums which were on exhibition in the Exposition last week, and used them to add beauty and attractiveness to the weight of other attractions of the department. The idea was very original and the realization more than could be uttered, for the happy combination of artistic and stylish hats with beautiful flowers, the harmonious association of art and nature, produced a picture too ideal for expression either on canvas or in language. As they entered the styles and the chrysantheums, salesladies presented them with bunches of roses, and hundreds of the lovely flowers were thus disposed of early this morning. The show window of the millinery department also received much attention, for it reflected the beauty of the aisles within. The opening will continue to-morrow and the managers are confident that the ladies will flock to the millinery department.

Stole Billiard Balls.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 16.—Fifteen thousand dollars worth of billiard balls is the novel plunder that the C. G. Allman Manufacturing Co. has lost by a robbery. Between 150 and 200 sets of the ivory balls were taken. Though not made public by the police until to-day, the robbery occurred Saturday night while the big Democratic torchlight parade and ratification were in progress. The thieves had little difficulty in removing a large pane of glass from the rear of the company's store and passing out the valuable boxes of billiard balls. Only the best balls were taken. Several men appear to have been implicated and they seem to have utilized a horse and wagon. The only clew to the perpetrators came in the arrest of a man to-day, giving the name of Wm. Anderson, trying to sell sixteen saloon-keepers for $3 to sixteen balls worth $600. Anderson claims to be a stranger in Chicago, and says a man with whom he is unacquainted offered him to dispose of the balls. The robbery is the largest haul made by thieves in Chicago for years, and the police department is much stirred up over the affair.

It now turns out that Tipton is a cousin of the notorious Tipton Hall, who was recently executed at Wise Court-house, W. Va. He has three living wives and is wanted in Kentucky for having committed two murders. The officers claim that he is also wanted in Cincinnati for forgery.

Fair, variable winds.

Heavy rains are reported from North Atlantic coast stations this morning, 3.08 inches having fallen at New York City and 1.22 at Boston.

The rain extends across the entire Northwestern States and the lower lake region.

Light snow is falling in Northwestern Colorado.

Cloudy weather prevails generally in the Central Mississippi Valley. It is warmer in the Lower Mississippi Valley and Texas, and colder in the Upper Missouri Valley.

Weather forecast for thirty-six hours, beginning at 8 a. m. to-day, for St. Louis: Light rain; cooler.

HISCOCK is wondering what "Democratic rooster" is to occupy his perch in the Senate.

It looks as if Mr. McKinley's tariff on eggs had served only to increase the number of rooster eggs.

ALL those citizens to whom Mr. Cleveland wrote letters appear to have been at the ballot box on the 8th.

BOSS QUAY has gone down among the alligators of Florida to weep crocodile tears for Benjamin Harrison.

THE United States Treasury and the three big sales of 515 Fifth avenue, New York, are both in a bad way.

THE race for Senator from Kansas seems to be between a woman who wears blue hostelry and a man who wears none at all.

THE Republican loss in Pennsylvania is 15,000 on the electoral vote. At this rate it will take just five years to make the State Democratic.

THE silence of Carter, Clark, Kerens & Co. as to Mr. Sutherland's political work in Troy surpasses in goldenness the profoundest reticence of the campaign.

"ALL quiet along the Potomac" was a familiar line in the war days. "Only five shots fired in Homestead" seems likely to become a familiar line in the peace days.

THE Populists will hold the balance of power in the Senate. But as they are at one with the Democrats on the tariff question they are not likely to obstruct legislation.

AN Eastern writer says that Mr. Blaine is seventeen years younger than Gladstone. And what if the result of the election has renewed the youth of the only Republican statesman?

THE appointment of two foreign ministers and a consul general to Cairo is a reminder that Benjamin Harrison is still with us and that it is three and a half months to Grover Cleveland.

PERHAPS the salaries to be paid by the Government to Government clerks for organizing boat excursions to entice Democrats away from the polls will be drawn from the naval appropriation funds.

"THE Republicans of New Jersey made a splendid fight," says the New York Tribune. How many Government clerks went to New Jersey to organize boat excursions for pleasure-seeking Democrats?

"It was a battle between phrases and facts," says Mr. Reid's paper, mourning over the result. How about the phrases in that long letter of acceptance written by the Republican nominee for Vice-President?

IF Arizona and New Mexico are entitled to statehood and can make it so appear to the non-partisan judgment let them come in by all means, but don't admit them solely because they are likely to return Democratic electors.

THE editorial candidate for the English mission or "something equally as good" in the way of an African consularship now declares that he is not opposed to an extra session of Congress if it is deemed advisable after a full consideration of all the facts and circumstances. He has discovered that the editorial aspiration is not the only fact bearing upon the case.

It is likely that Mr. Dewey would be better in the domain of biography than in the field of politics. A series of volumes from Mr. Dewey on "Typical Americans" would undoubtedly find a ready sale in all the bookstores.

WHEN the State of Abraham Lincoln gives Grover Cleveland 27,807 more votes than it casts for Benjamin Harrison it ought to be plain to the dullest partisan that the Republicans are no longer led by progressive men.

THE country will agree with Mr. Dewey that there should be no delay in carrying out the policy of relief from high tariff taxation. Unfortunately the Republicans have so burdened the Treasury that only moderate relief can be expected for a time.

PROBABLY no member of the Cabinet will yield his place more willingly than Secretary Foster of the Treasury. He did his best to make a good showing after his party had squandered the public funds, and the situation must have been a very trying one for him.

It is asserted that train-loads of Democrats are about to leave Indiana for New York to see Mr. Cleveland about the offices. Train-loads of Republicans used to worry Mr. Harrison in '88, before he was elected. The Democrats have at least waited until after the popular verdict.

IF Joseph Cannon, who has voted so often to unseat Democrats in Congress who were really elected, should presently find Democratic Congressmen voting to unseat him he will have no right to complain. It is not probable, however, that Joseph will lose his seat unless the charges of corruption and doctored returns in his election shall be fully proven.

IF President Harrison extends the civil service rules so as to cover the Bureau of Printing and Engraving and the Government Printing Office he will receive the thanks of every thinking Democrat, and no doubt confer a personal favor upon Mr. Cleveland. Such a course would be condemned by the spoilsmen, but it is not necessary to think of them at this time.

CONSIDERING the condition of the Federal Treasury, it was a great piece of extravagance in the Administration to send out the government clerks to work election frauds. If there is anything left of the Republican campaign fund it should be covered into the Treasury. Uncle Samuel should be asked to pay for government work only.

THE courts have set Commissioner Peck free, and the great secrets of the burned public documents will never be revealed. The voters of New York do not appear to have placed much confidence in the Peckian statistics, and the curiosity as to their source died very suddenly when the election returns began to come in. The only Peck with whom the country is now familiar is a Democratic Governor up in the recently Republican State of Wisconsin.

THE books at the Pittsburgh Court-house show that at the late reorganization of the Carnegie company the capital stock was increased from $5,000,000 to $25,000,000. How much of this increase was water and how much of it came from the "unearned profit" of monopoly? This is a pertinent question. The managers of the concern have been beggars for years and have been granted monopoly privileges because they could not make a living without them.

BEFORE the election there were so many confident Republican predictions that New York would be carried for Harrison that it was plain the managers were counting on something more than ordinary in the canvass. The facts are now coming out, and it is easy to see why the prophets were confident. The reports from Troy and Buffalo make everything clear. If all the wickedness of the New York campaign were to be uncovered there would be a good deal of interesting newspaper reading for a few weeks.

THE announcement made by Charles Lyman of the Civil Service Commission that President Cleveland will not make many changes in the civil service is probably unauthorized, but there is nothing improbable in it. Mr. Cleveland has many times expressed his disgust for the spoilsman and when President more than once objected to being a mere office broker. As he is practically independent of all obligations except to the people he can go his own way, devote his mind to questions of real public interest and let the Podunk Post-office slide.

SENATOR SHERMAN is living up to his well earned reputation as a many-sided man by strenuously advocating the repeal of the silver act which bears his name. As a financier he has been by turns a partisan and an opponent of every financial policy proposed during the past thirty years. But what does he mean when he says "The act has long since accomplished all I wanted it to do." [His chief accomplishment has been to postpone and further complicate the coinage question and place a few millions in the pockets of Congressional foresters and other speculators.]

UNDER Mr. Cleveland's administration the Republicans complained because the surplus was growing. Recent investigation of experts shows that under Harrison's administration the deficit has been growing. It has already reached $100,000,000, and there is danger that it will be still larger by the 4th of March. It is to be hoped that the Republicans will not, like bad tenants with notice to quit, commit further waste of the estate, scatter the revenues, smash windows and play general havoc with the premises.

PUT THE SPRINGER BILLS THROUGH. To account for the inability of American manufacturers to get into foreign markets the absurd plea has been made that high wages have so added to the cost of production that American goods could not be profitably sold in open market against foreign competitors.

THE real reason, which has been thoroughly understood all along, but carefully concealed, is that raw materials have been made so costly by tariff duties that the manufactured articles could not be produced for a price as low as the foreign goods. When these duties are removed there will be nothing in the way of American commercial supremacy. And once this is done there will be no excuse for prohibitory duties on the finished product. These can be reduced to a revenue basis, without causing any disturbance either to the wages of labor or to the employers' reasonable profit.

A good entering wedge is found in the group of bills introduced by Mr. Springer at the last session and which were pigeon-holed by the Republican Senate. These provide for the abolition of duties on a number of raw materials and can be reintroduced without modification if no action is taken upon them this winter.

Chief of these is the free-wool bill, which would immediately confer an enormous advantage upon the American manufacturer and at the same time make it impossible for shoddy stuff to hold its own against honest woolsens. If this bill is passed it will encourage the woolen industry, create a demand for labor and free one branch of American energy from the fetters which have so long paralyzed it and prevented its exercise. This and the other measures mentioned will constitute an object lesson which will demonstrate the beneficence of free trade. The Springer measures are at hand. No deliberation is necessary for they have been thoroughly discussed and digested.

ABROAD AND AT HOME. "Every heart knoweth its own sorrows," and so does every nation. There has been much just complaint in this country over the waste of the public funds and the exactions of the tariff. But, compared with other nations, we are still a blest people.

France has recently been shocked by a bomb explosion which killed a number of persons, and is constantly threatened by the activity and repeated violence of anarchists. There is great and growing dissatisfaction in Germany over the proposed army bill, which involves an increase of an already oppressive taxation. All classes in England are dissatisfied. The farmers are moving for a reduction of rents and the elimination from their leases of certain restrictions in regard to the number of cattle they may graze and the disposition they may make of their straw and hay. They declare they can not compete in the production of grain with this country and pay the high rents exacted from them, while in the manufacturing districts there is great distress. The army of unemployed in London are holding meetings and clamoring savagely for relief. The immense gathering on Trafalgar Square the other day was significant. The crowd surged to and fro about the stands where inflammatory orators addressed them. The air was filled with the clamors of the hungry, and a looker-on might well have asked with the boatsteward in The Tempest, "What care these roarsers for the name of King?"

Amid all this our country is prosperous and we have reason to hope that it will become even more prosperous under the approaching Democratic administration. There will be more rigid economy in public expenditures and a decided reduction of taxation effected by reform tariff legislation. It will become even a more inviting field for the investment of foreign capital; the distribution of the cost of Government will be more wisely adjusted and better recompense afforded to the toilers in all departments of industry by the extension of our markets and the broadening of our commerce. Both the capitalist and the laborer have a more cheering and encouraging prospect. With grateful hearts we may all join in the chorus of "Hail Columbia, Happy Land," and sing new praises to the star spangled banner.

DISTURBING BUSINESS. The protest against an extra session on the ground that business interests will suffer from a too sudden change of tariff, ignores the greater injury resulting from protracted suspense and uncertainty respecting the impending changes. The longer action is postponed the more business will be affected by free trade bugaboos in the minds of timid and pessimistic business men.

The protected concerns know now that they are likely to be deprived of a large slice of unearned profits, but the sooner the tariff is reformed the sooner they will learn that the real prosperity of nation or individual will not be diminished by a proper reduction of tariff duties. On the contrary, those interests which have any right to live can get along better without governmental assistance, because the cost of manufacture will be considerably lowered, thereby enabling them to begin the conquest of foreign markets. The event will prove that the manufacturers themselves are to be among the largest gainers by the change of policy. The difference, however, is essential. Under high protection their profits have been unearned. In future they will come as an honest consequence of enterprise and ingenuity.

No matter how soon the change comes business will not be disturbed. The same dire predictions were made in England during Cobden's agitation for a reduction of the high tariff of Great Britain, but they were falsified by the event and England has since led the commercial world. The same consequences will as inevitably flow from a similar policy in this country.

MR. CLEVELAND is never very successful as a humorist, but he may be forgiven his alleged funny efforts for the sake of the good sense which always crops out in spite of the solemn fun. In his talk to the New York Chamber of Commerce last night he again uttered something worth thinking about.

It comes to this, we are all interested as Americans in a common pursuit. Our purpose is, or ought to be, in our several spheres, to add to the general fund of national prosperity. From each of us we are entitled to draw, perhaps not equally, but justly, each receiving a fair portion of individual prosperity. Let us avoid tramping on each other in our anxiety to be first in the distribution of shares, and let us not attempt to appropriate the share of others.

This is good Democratic doctrine, such as we are accustomed to from him, and is a direct rebuke to those who are too careful of special interests. As American citizens we should hold the general interests paramount. In this passage Mr. Cleveland sums up the whole argument of the masses against the classes, of the people against the plutocrats.

It is said that women are taking hold of the abandoned farms of New England. Perhaps they will succeed. At any rate when they take their "truck" to town the proceeds will not be lost in bar bills, and they will not put any of their profits in plug tobacco. There is one peril, however: Unless they are directed strictly to their farming there will be a danger of their coming to the city, and when they are married the product will be waggoned to town by these fellows.

THERE may be a feminine Senator from Kansas and other high places may be offered the fair, but there is one place to which women must not aspire. That is the office of Secretary of Agriculture. The Secretary of Agriculture manages the Weather Bureau. The country could grow no crops with so much variable weather.

THE hotels of Philadelphia are rapidly filling up with families who have fled their homes on account of the great scarcity of the coal. The hotels are being run by a competent "lady help." Were it not for immigration there would be no feminine servants in the city. The man who knows how to keep a hotel is evidently the coming man, if not the coming millionaire.

DR. PROUDFIT, the wealthy clergyman who has retired from the Presbyterian Church because he does not approve of titles, may go so far as to do away with the name of his fine estate in Jersey, which is known as "The Highlands."

THE Missouri Volunteer. In the prison cell, thinking, Benjamin, of these, And on Carter and on Kerens I reflect; For the road of Democrats we awaited on the boat. Didn't come, as I had reason to expect. Cramp, cramp, cramp, the walls are damping.

Why doesn't Chairman Carter come? I am getting rheumatism, and I feel that I shall "sneak!" If there's no one who will come and take me home.

AN Extra Session. In the election of 1890 the people demanded relief from excessive and hurtfully devised taxation. The Democratic House then elected tried hard to afford the relief. The Republican Senate stood obstinately in the way. The people have now again demanded the relief more imperatively than before.

If the Republican Senate is wisely and patriotically disposed it will pass this winter the remedial measures which the House passed last year.

If the Senate plays Bourbon and refuses, it may become the duty of President Cleveland to call Congress together in extra session next spring to carry out the command of the people. It is not right or fair that the country should be made to wait thirteen months for the execution of its command twice given.

The extra session, if one is called, will naturally not attempt the full work of revising the tariff. That will require careful study and deliberation, in order that no interest of the people may be hurt through ill-judged changes. We must make haste slowly. But at the extra session the Federal election law under which John I. Davenport does his mischievous work should be repealed, the remedial tariff measure passed by the House last year should be made law, and a committee should be appointed to consider with due deliberation the details of the tariff reform to be wrought at the regular session.

It is time that the voice of the people be made the law of the land. Oppressive taxes should be repealed. If it requires an extra session to secure this relief the extra session should be called.

THE World's Sound Judgment. From the Boston Globe. The New York World's Western campaign has ceased to be a joke. The election news from Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan, Wisconsin and other Northwestern States has had a decidedly sobering effect upon those who laughed at our great New York contemporary as a pursuer of rainbows. The fund subscribed was not as large as it ought to have been, but the result confirms the sound judgment of the World in turning its powerful batteries upon the great Western stronghold of Republicanism.

THE Irish Saw the Joke. From the Philadelphia Record. When the returns shall have all come in, especially from New York, Chicago and some of the other centers of population, ex-Secretary Blaine and Mr. Patrick Egan will be able to estimate with tolerable accuracy the effect of their appeals to the "Irish-Americans" against the Democratic party. The Irish are a humor-loving people, and they enjoyed immensely the attempt to persuade them to vote against Cleveland because of their hatred of British Toryism. Then they went and voted the Democratic ticket to show their thorough appreciation of the joke.

A Programme Indicated. From the Chicago Herald. The people have declared, in the words of the Democratic platform, that "we denounce the McKinley tariff law enacted by the Fifty-third Congress as the culminating act of class legislation." And this indicates the first step to be taken by the Fifty-third Congress in special session next spring. Congress need not sit all summer, or enter upon the work of general tariff revision. It can repeat the McKinley act, except as to sugar, which may well be reserved as a source of revenue in future in case of necessity, put wool and other raw material on the free list, reduce the rates on finished products to match, in the manner indicated by the several House bills of the last session, instruct the Ways and Means Committee to prosecute the work of general revision during the recess, and then adjourn.

A Sure Investment. From the Chicago Herald. Mr. Dewey says that the people of the United States are tired of a certainty and want to speculate. Chaucery is partly right. The people are tired of the certainty of being cheated in the investment of their money. They have now invested in another certainty—lower taxes, pure government and equal rights.

The Women, Too. From the Philadelphia Record. Is there no political gratitude extant? The Republicans lament that the "old soldier vote," the "colored vote," the "Irish-American vote" and the "German vote" have all "gone down the drain." And now comes the latest and worst news, to the effect that they have lost the women voters of Wyoming.

THE PEOPLE'S FORUM. (No matter what on both sides of the sheet can appear under this head.—Ed.) Randall and the Force Bill. To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch: Having read your tribute to Samuel J. Randall, I know you will tell me of a severe test I saw applied to his conscientious firmness.

It was not a year previous to the death of Mr. Samuel J. Randall when I happened to be in his committee room. There was much talk at the time about the force bill. Randall had defeated a previous measure of the kind in a fight against an overwhelming and enraged majority by remaining on the floor of the House for sixty-three hours without changing his clothes, and fighting his adversaries at every turn with bull-dog courage and while carrying a cane with him.

Mr. Julius C. Burrows of Michigan came in accompanied by a judge from West Tennessee, who was a Republican, but a man of standing in his community both as a lawyer and as a citizen. "I have brought a gentleman in to introduce to you a measure which will be of great benefit to the country," said Burrows, "I have brought a gentleman in to introduce to you a measure which will be of great benefit to the country."

He then proceeded to read the bill, which was a series of outrageous by which the negro vote in the South would be suppressed or fraudulently counted on the Democratic side for a number of elections. "At the last election," he said, "I was elected to the House, and I have brought a gentleman in to introduce to you a measure which will be of great benefit to the country."

"Well, as far as I know, Burrows, I have no objection to your introducing a measure which will be of great benefit to the country," said Randall, "but I have no objection to your introducing a measure which will be of great benefit to the country."

SHIRK IS WAITING. Returns on the Supreme Judgeship Race Becoming Very Interesting.

IF SHIRK SUCCEEDS JUDGE SHERWOOD WILL BE THE VICTIM.

How a Missouri Pacific Attorney Worked the Deal to Capture a Seat on the Supreme Bench—To-Night's Demonstration at Exposition Music Hall—Political Matters.

Judge W. S. Shirk, who represents the Missouri Pacific's legal interests at Sedalia, Mo., in this city this morning conferring with politicians at the Laclede, Judge Shirk's friends claim that his deal with the Populists has secured his election to a seat on Division No. 2 of the Supreme Court and that he has defeated either Judge Sherwood or Judge Burgess.

Speaking to a Post-Dispatch representative this morning Judge Shirk said: "I am waiting patiently to see the official figures. I have heard from only fifty-four counties and am not sure of the result. My information, however, shows that I am running right up and ahead of the Republican ticket and ahead of the Populist ticket. I do not claim to make such a claim until the facts warrant it. My chances, however, are very good. I have a large number of votes and I am confident that I will be elected."

"If you are elected by the Republican and People's parties, you will be the sufferer on the Democratic ticket," he said. "Well, as far as I know, Burgess ran against Sherwood and lost. I will indicate that the event of my election Judge Sherwood will be the loser, though I would prefer to have the other way. I understand, however, that I am not claiming election nor will I until I get something more definite. I wrote to Mr. C. E. Baker, Chairman of the Democratic Committee for information, but all the satisfaction I got from him was that he had heard of me and believed I was buried out of sight with the rest of the Republican outfit."

Mr. W. H. Rhoads of the Missouri Pacific, who has been giving considerable attention to the campaign, said in answer to a question to-day that he did not believe the official count would give Judge Shirk a plurality over either Sherwood or Burgess. "My impression," he said, "is that the entire Democratic ticket is elected. I have no way of ascertaining at this time the exact number of votes. I have not yet heard from the second division count. I have not yet heard from the second division count. I have not yet heard from the second division count."

Flying Wheelbarrow Bet. An immense crowd gathered on Jefferson avenue and Montgomery street last Sunday afternoon to see Edward Schultz pay off an election bet by wheeling Herman Hufmann, a grocery clerk employed in a store at that corner, to Grand and St. Louis avenues and return to the hour appointed, a 5 o'clock Schultz was on hand, with a gayly decorated barrow and a brass band of twelve pieces. By the time Hufmann took his seat and started out on his triumphant tour a crowd of several thousand had gathered and along the line the Harrison and Cleveland banners were being waved. George Fremuth of Rock Springs showed John Cleveland's election and Hufmann's defeat at 5 p. m. in a wheelbarrow race as a result of the Cleveland election. William W. W. showed his cousin, Leo Wiso, the same distance with a band of music a head of them and about a hundred people following them in a parade.

Young Democracy at Collinville. The Young Democracy of St. Louis will assemble at the Union Depot next Saturday evening at 6:30, and will leave for Collinville to attend a jollification meeting at which Gen. Adlai Stevenson and Gov.-elect Alford will make addresses. Gov. Frank is expected to be escorted thither by the Young Democracy. Immediately on arrival at Collinville the visitors will be taken to a supper by the generous Illinoisans. When the meeting is over the Young Democracy will entertain the club with a small and early dance, at which no swallow-tails will be allowed. The total expense to members of the organization will be but $1, and those who took the trip before are loud in their praise. All good Democrats are invited to accompany the Young Democracy, and can obtain tickets from Mr. C. H. Caldwell, 612 Pine street; Mr. F. R. Grand, 612 Olive, or ex-actor, 515 Olive. It is especially desired that members purchase their tickets before Friday.

Will Jubilate To-Night. The arrangements for the Democratic jubilee at Exposition Music Hall were completed to-day by President Marshall of the Missouri Democratic Association, which has undertaken to manage the demonstration. Vice-President-elect Stevenson will arrive in St. Louis shortly before 7 o'clock this evening and will be received by a reception committee. He will deliver the speech of the evening at the ratification. The other speakers will be Gov. Frank, Mr. C. E. Baker, Senator Vest and Col. J. M. Dalton. Maj. Harvey W. Salmon, Chairman of the State Executive Committee, has been chosen to preside.

Why Stephens Led the State Ticket. The official count of the ballots cast for the State candidates shows that State Treasurer Lon V. Stephens received the highest vote. This was surprising to a number of Capt. Lesser's friends, who confidently believed that he would carry off the highest honors in the city. Stephens received thirty-six votes more than Lesser, and 1,500 in excess of the combined vote of the two other candidates. The reason for this was due to the support given by the depositors of the defunct Fifth National Bank. Stephens was a director of the bank and managed its affairs in a manner that made him many friends among the depositors, regardless of political lines.

Judge W. S. Shirk, who represents the Missouri Pacific's legal interests at Sedalia, Mo., in this city this morning conferring with politicians at the Laclede, Judge Shirk's friends claim that his deal with the Populists has secured his election to a seat on Division No. 2 of the Supreme Court and that he has defeated either Judge Sherwood or Judge Burgess.

AFTER HIS SALARY.

Superintendent of Poor-House Gallagher's Mandamus Proceedings.

A WRIT AGAINST AUDITOR BROWN RE-TURNABLE DEC. 8.

The City Employee Who Refused to Be Deposed by the Charity Commissioners Asks the Courts to Force the Payment of His Wages—City Counselor Marshall's Odd Position—Court News.

Joseph P. Gallagher, Superintendent of the Poor-house, has at last concluded to work no longer without pay, and accordingly his attorneys, Judge Geo. W. Anderson and John B. Dempsey, filed mandamus proceedings in the Circuit Court this morning against City Auditor Brown.

The matter was sent to Court-room No. 3, and after the petition had been presented by Attorney Dempsey, Judge Edwards ordered the writ of mandamus to issue, returnable to the court on Dec. 8 next.

In his application for the writ Gallagher stated that he was appointed Superintendent of the Poor-house by Mayor Noonan on March 10, 1891, and was confirmed by the City Council on March 16 following, on which day he claims to have also filed his bond and duly qualified in the City Treasurer's office.

On March 19 he entered upon his duties as Superintendent and alleges that he is still acting in that capacity. On Sept. 1 last he requested City Auditor Brown, he claims, to issue him a warrant on the City Treasurer for $125, the amount of his salary for the month of August. The City Auditor thereupon offered him one for $127, the amount of his salary for Sept. 22, 1892, which Gallagher claims he refused.

On Oct. 1 and again on Nov. 1 last he demanded warrants for his month's salary, which were only refused by the Auditor. He therefore prays the court to issue a writ of mandamus against the City Auditor and compel him to show cause why he withholds the above warrants.

This controversy is the outgrowth of the removal of Gallagher from the position of Superintendent of the Poor-house by the Board of Charity Commissioners in August last. Gallagher refused to recognize the authority of the Charity Commissioners, and he was backed up by Mayor Noonan, who obtained an opinion from City Counselor Marshall that Gallagher had been illegally removed, inasmuch as no formal charges were preferred against him, and he had not been given "a fair, just and impartial hearing."

The board of charity commissioners claimed that they were not controlled by the city ordinance but obtained their power to remove directly from the charter, where nothing is said of "preferring charges," and giving the accused a regular trial. They contended that the board was not absurd, inasmuch as the board would first have to prefer charges and then place themselves in the ridiculous position of trying to try them. The City Counselor's opinion, they claim, was obtained by request and will not stand in a court of justice.

As Mayor Noonan refused to appoint a successor or recognize in any way the action of the board of charity commissioners, they notified the City Comptroller, City Auditor and Health Commissioner of their proceedings and the action they had taken. The City Auditor thereupon refused to recognize Gallagher as Superintendent of the Poor-house after Aug. 22 last, and has since persistently refused to pay him his salary.

The opinion will be valuable, as the board contemplates the investigation of several other institutions where gross irregularities are alleged, and they want their powers judicially defined.

A peculiar phase of the case is the relation which City Counselor Marshall bears to the parties in the suit. He has already given his opinion officially to the Mayor that Gallagher was illegally removed, and as under ordinary circumstances he would be called upon to defend any action brought against the City Auditor it would be his duty to act as counsel in this case. Yet considering the above facts it seems at least very inconsistent that he should get in this instance.

A Special Tax Bill Issue.

Henry Duncker filed a suit to-day in the Circuit Court against the contractors Ettil & Ruckert, which will prove of interest to property-owners who have special tax bills to pay on street reconstruction.

The petition states that Duncker is the owner of eight lots in Franklin avenue in city block 10-6, and that under an ordinance passed for the reconstruction of Franklin avenue from Madison to the city limits, special tax bills were assessed against these lots in the sum of $125 each, and that these bills are a lien on the property and a cloud on the title until paid. Under the provisions of the ordinance Duncker claims that improvements to streets and roadways can only be charged upon the property adjoining and in proportion to the frontage of the property on the street improved. He claims that directly in front of his lots Franklin avenue is widened by the intersection of Washington street with it at this point, and that the Saturday electric cars pass up the street there. Instead of being assessed $125 per lot he claims that he should only have been assessed $25 per lot, as he has requested the defendants, who are the holders of these tax bills, to deduct the sum of $125 from each, or $275 in all, and they have refused to do it, he asks the court to adjust the matter and remove the cloud thus cast upon the title to his property.

The Bowman Divorce Case.

In the divorce proceedings of Mary E. Bowman against John S. Bowman, whom she accuses of deserting her, Judge Edwards this morning refused to grant a decree for maintenance during the pendency of the proceedings on unsupported evidence of the wife worth $7,000. The court claims that the defendant is alleged to own unimproved real estate some positive evidence of the fact should be adduced, and until this is done no decree will be rendered.

Wills Probated.

The will of the late Rachel O. C. Sneed was admitted to probate to-day. She states that her husband left her $6,000, which she has loaned to her daughter, Anna Sneed Cairns, and holds her note for it. Of this amount she leaves $1,000 to her daughter, Harriet E. Worthington, to be paid in five years from the date of her death; also $1,000 to her son, Samuel E. Sneed, and $1,000 to her daughter, Mary Sneed Persons, on the same conditions. To her daughter Anna Sneed Cairns she leaves $2,000, and also $1,000 in trust for the education of the children of Harriet E. Worthington. The balance of her estate is left to her daughter Anna Sneed Cairns, who is appointed executrix.

An inventory of the estate of Max Laudau filed to-day in the Probate Clerk's office, shows a total personal estate of $23,721.51, of which $47,380 was in policies of insurance. By the will of August Mueller filed for probate to-day, he leaves his entire estate to his son Louis and his daughter Kate subject to certain limitations and conditions in the event of the death of either or both.

Keyes, proprietor of the Hotel Keyes, on Nineteenth and Carr streets, to recover $500 which he alleges he paid to him on Nov. 10 last for a half interest in the hotel. SCHOOL BOARD MEETING.

At the school board meeting last night the Fiske trouble came up again, owing to a speech made by Director W. E. Fiske, declining to serve on the Rules and Supply Committee, where he had been placed by President Blair. Mr. Fiske claimed to have been degraded to unimportant committees after a year's hard work in the board, and accused President Blair of favoritism. He also attacked indirectly the three men whom he later accused of circulating defamatory stories about him, and said that the only reason he did not bring charges against them was because he did not wish to throw discredit on the board. President Blair and director Brockman replied to the charges.

The report of the Building Committee was adopted, making the suspension of Brockman a condition of the vote. The report of the Ways and Means Committee was also adopted, and the majority of the board present to pass on the proposition to transfer $9,000 from the Teachers' fund to the Building fund.

The Teachers' Committee yesterday gave leave of absence to Miss Sallie E. Smith of the Pestalozzi school and Miss E. K. Park of the Starr, the former until April and the latter until end of quarter. Each received a promise of same position. Miss Sarah Gaffney was transferred from the Pestalozzi to the Logans. Miss Laura Reichegale and Corn M. Shumate reported back from leaves of absence.

The opinion declared that a report of the judges concurred in the opinion.

A Deserved Compliment.

The annual meeting of the St. Louis Livery Stable Keepers and Undertakers' Association was held last night and concluded with a little ceremony which took its President, Mr. Robert H. Scott, by surprise. It was the presentation to the President of a very handsome and valuable Knights Templar pocket, jeweled with diamonds of rare brilliancy, and bearing the inscription "Presented to President Robert H. Scott by the St. Louis Livery Stable Keepers and Undertakers' Association as a token of esteem." During the presentation of this gift, Mr. Scott was shown judicial fairness in disposing of troublesome complications, and last night's presentation was the expression of appreciation of the impartial justice and untiring efforts with which Mr. Scott has administered the affairs of the association.

A Jeweler Makes a Preferred Creditor of His Uncle.

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 16.—The creditors of J. O. Conrad, the wholesale jeweler doing business under the name of the Chandler Co., were considerably surprised yesterday to learn that over $40,000 worth of jewelry had been taken from his stock, boxed up and shipped out of the city Monday a few hours before he made his assignment. When the deed of assignment was filed in the Probate Court, Mr. Conrad made the statement that his liabilities were $50,000 and that the total amount of his assets will be $20,000.

When Assignee Sigler took charge of the stock he was surprised to find that it consisted only of the heavier kind of jewelry and that altogether not more than $15,000 worth of jewelry was visible. He began an investigation, and learned that on Monday morning Mr. Conrad packed the cream of his stock into five large trunks and shipped them to Erie, Pa. The contents were worth $40,000. The trunks were preceded by a telegram to J. M. Conrad, an uncle of J. O. Conrad, asking him to attach the trunks as soon as they reached there. It is said J. O. Conrad owed his uncle $15,000 and accrued interest. He borrowed this sum when he bought the stock from J. M. Conrad, who failed four or five years ago. The trunks and their contents were attached by the Erie uncle, and they are now in possession of the sheriff in that city.

A musical and literary program was rendered and addresses made by B. D. Lee, Henry P. Wyman, S. J. Waterman and H. M. Hossom. A number of letters were received from former pastors and ex-members of the church.

was a blue and gold room and the dra-pers on the windows were most artistic. The curtains were of the softest of swiss wreathed on a gilt rod. They were finished in blue and gold.

over-curtains were of blue silk, powdered with crescent of gold. The poles from which they hung represented gilt trees, and the drapery at the top was fringed at each side with a gilt arrow-head.

DO AS MOST DO

few will speak evil of the crowd. Most people take in the great remnant sales Friday afternoon advertised in Thursday's Post-

How Old Man Simpson Drove the Cow
Out of the Pen.

From the Detroit Free Press.

"Old Man" Simpson was a very strict boss on his large ranch, as many a poor, hard-worked cowboy could testify. He lived on his ranch nearly all the time, but allowed his family to live in the town of which he was one of the wealthiest citizens, where his two bright and promising boys were going to school. Having been brought up on the prairie, he was uneducated, but he appreciated the advantages of an education and sent his boys to school a great part of their time. He had not taught them to read, but he had taught them to respect the properties and dangers of ranch life, but sometimes forgot that the hunter, so, as this very true story will prove.

One day the boys were on a visit to the ranch, and had come out to the town where where the cowboys had just turned over a large herd of cattle into the pen. It was for some cause a very vicious cow in the pen.
Although the gate was wide open she did not go out. The boys got in the pen and tried they would drive her out, but they had to use their utmost exertions to get out themselves, and then the cow got so close to them that she would lift their coat tails with her horns. As the boys were climbing the fence their father appeared on the scene, and saw their dangerous drift. He ordered them to get down and trace that cow out, but they positively refused to do so, although they stood in great awe of their father, and were not used to disobeying him in anything; but, as one of them after confessed, they preferred a beating to a hooking this time, so they told their father that they were afraid.

"Afraid," he said in scorn, "watch your daddy get her out."

As it happened he had on a long-tailed linen duster at the time, so when he crawled under the fence to get into the pen, he took with him the duster. He was not sure of what the boys say the cow thought. Anyhow the cow was determined to have some fun with him. She came up to him at the old gentleman, and he having been told that she was a vicious cow, he did to the best of his ability. As he neared the gate he stepped on a corn cob and fell full length. Before he could rise the cow had passed over him like a whirlwind of fury, leaving him lying on the ground with a duster, but like the perverse beast that she was she went on out the gate.

Anxiety Felt for a Prominent Minnesota Politician.

DULUTH, Minn., Nov. 16.—John K. Shaw, a prominent Duluth man, formerly City Assessor and a leader in St. Louis County (Minn.) Democracy, has been missing since last Saturday from his office in Minneapolis.
He resigned the City Assessorship here about three months ago to accept the State assessor-ship of the Providence Savings Life Insurance Co., with offices at Minneapolis. His family has heard nothing of him here, and has several detectives looking for him. His books have been thoroughly examined, and everything found perfectly correct. The family can offer no explanation, except that two years ago in Kansas, after a severe attack of fever, he disappeared and was absent several weeks. It is thought that the falling may have returned upon him. The last time he was at home he was dependent and not in his best mental condition. His wife and sons are nearly distracted, and are using every endeavor to discover his whereabouts. Mr. Shaw was a Democratic candidate for Mayor of Duluth in 1890.

DREADFUL SKIN DISEASE

A Meticulous Merchant. Itching and Burning Terrible. Doctors and All Remedies Fail.

Tries Cuticura. Relieved by the First Application and Entirely Cured in Five Weeks.

About eighteen months ago a small speck appeared on my ankle; it resembled a fish-scale; it became larger, and I consulted a doctor, who told me it was psoriasis or monied disease, and that it would never be cured. I applied an ointment, but it spread until it had covered almost my entire body. My suffering was something terrible, burning and itching sensations continually, until it became almost unbearable. I suffered torments, especially at night, for two months I was compelled to sleep with gloves on. I became desperate. I would have given anything to be relieved of the itching sensation. I tried a number of remedies without any relief. I was requested to try CUTICURA; this I did, and to my great surprise I was relieved after the first application. I used the CUTICURA SOAP and CUTICURA RESOLVENT according to directions for about four or five weeks, when I was entirely cured. But what a relief it was to me after the suffering I went through.
I cannot speak too much in favor of the "CUTICURA RESOLVENT," and I would recommend it to all those who are suffering from the same disease that I have suffered.

THEY PLAYED FAIR.

HON. JERRY SIMPSON WILL NOT STAND FOR THE SENATE.

Secretary Tom Carter to Be Succeeded by Gen. Clarkson—Congressman Johnson of Ohio Has Views as to an Extra Session—Cleveland Speaks at a New York Banquet—Political.

TOPEKA, Kan., Nov. 16.—Official returns from Jerry Simpson's district give him 1,400 majority. Two years ago he was elected by 7,422. It is now believed that he will not be candidate for Senator. Leaders of the fusion party fear that a new man would be defeated in that district if his seat in Congress was vacated and a special election held. Mrs.
Lease says Jerry is a Democrat straight, and is taking the People's party, and its members don't realize it. As the Democratic banquets since the election Simpson appeared as an invited guest, and in his speeches he is credited with the statement that the Democratic party would now take the place of the People's party, and carry on the reforms inaugurated by it. He denies that he is connected with the plot to assassinate him. He says he is in favor of a Democrat for Senator because "they played fair with us this time, and we will need them in the future."
On the return of the returns from every county in the Second District Congressman Fulton is re-elected by 53 majority. Col.
Moore, his Democratic opponent, has given notice of his intention to contest on the ground of illegal voting in Kansas City, Kan.
It is probable that there will be a lively time in Kansas before the new People's State officers take their seats. Charges of fraud are made by leading Republicans and the State Committee is investigating the matter before any definite action is taken on the face of the returns. The Populist or fusion ticket is elected by about 3,500 majority.

CARTER WILL STEP DOWN.

CLARKSON TO BE MADE CHAIRMAN OF THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN COMMITTEE.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 16.—The Montana statesman who held the wheel of the Republican craft during the recent cyclone, has stood his last trick as the party pilot.
Carter will stand aside after the reorganization of the G. O. P., which is slated to take place some time in January next.

It is thought now that Clarkson will succeed him. The majority of the committee are what are known as plain Republicans.
They wanted to make Gen. Clarkson chairman last June in spite of the President's objection, but he would not consent to it.

The old Maine guide, however, believes that they are entitled to the "control" of the machine from this time on. They do not expect to nominate Mr. Blaine in 1896, as there is no reasonable prospect that his health will permit. They are determined, however, to throw overboard the high tariff apostles and take up some man who represents the progressive sentiment of the country. In the judgment of many Republican leaders, Senator William A. Clark is the only man in the Republican party. They are looking to him as the Moses who will lead them out of the wilderness.

Mr. Allison carried his State and he has maintained close relations with the Blaine people. It is known that he was not in sympathy with the McKinley bill and opposed many of its features on the floor of the Senate. He only voted for it under the party lash.

Allison is popular in the West. He leans towards free silver, and yet he is conservative enough on the money question to satisfy the business interests of the country. He is chairman of the delegation from this country to the monetary conference which meets in Brussels on the 22d of this month. Just at present he is the only man in the Republican camp who has not been knocked out completely.

THE EXTRA SESSION.

CONGRESSMAN JOHNSON OF OHIO THINKS IT OUGHT TO BE CALLED.

NEW YORK, Nov. 16.—Congressman Thomas L. Johnson of Ohio, who has been in New York the past few days on private business, has returned to his district on an extra session of the Fifty-third Congress. Discussing the matter with a newspaper representative Mr.
Johnson said: "If at the coming session the Senate will adopt the bills the House has already presented, it will be good for us as it goes, but it will not be enough. I ought in the present House to do what we have failed to do at the last session, and pass bills putting other materials on the free list and reducing the protective duties to a revenue basis, thus presenting to the State the real Demo-

RADICAL REFORMS.

Subjects to Be Considered by the British National Union.

PROPOSALS TO AMEND THE SUFFRAGE, LABOR AND LAND LAWS.

All the Queen's Colonies to Be Represented in a Federal Council—Bust of Sir John Macdonald Unveiled—Bogus Literary Society Unearthed—General Foreign News—Briefs.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—The annual congress of the British National Union, which will be held early in December, has a significant feature of the programme will be a resolution affirming the principle of fair trade. The congress will also be asked to adopt the leading planks of the resolution recently adopted by the conference of Conservative associations at Edinburgh. As these dispatches have already stated, the sessions are most frankly democratic, and even go beyond the Liberal proposals. This Edinburgh programme includes national registration reform, with a reduction of the period of occupancy required to qualify voters; approval of the extension of the franchise to female rate-payers, the disfranchisement of illiterate voters, popular control of the liquor traffic, state provision for old age, assistance to workmen to enable them to acquire land for building purposes, an amendment to the factory laws, and the passage of acts in the interests of workmen. The arrangements for the agricultural congress are progressing rapidly and the affair promises to be a gigantic one. Delegates have been nominated from the most remote districts of Great Britain. The congress will appoint a delegation to wait upon Mr. Gladstone.

The Council of the Imperial Federation, at a meeting to-day, approved the report of the committee which proposes the creation of a federal council in which shall sit representatives of Canada, Australia, New Zealand, together with the British Prime Minister, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, the Minister of Foreign Affairs, the Minister of the Colonies, the Minister of War, the First Lord of the Admiralty, and the Secretary of State for India. This council shall fix the contributions each part of the Empire shall pay towards the common defense. The report declared that an essential principle of federation is that the voice of the Empire in dealing with foreign powers should be the united voice of all the parts of the Empire.

The British representatives of the Behring Sea Arbitration Commission met at the Foreign Office yesterday to consider further replies in the case to be submitted to the United States.

BRITISH TOPICS.

BUST OF THE LATE SIR JOHN MACDONALD UNVEILED.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—Lord Roseberry, the Foreign Minister, unveiled in the crypt of St. Paul's Cathedral to-day a marble bust of the late Sir John Macdonald, first Premier of Canada. There were present the Marquis of Ripon, Lord Brassey, Premier Abbott of Canada and the Council of the Federation League. Lord Roseberry said that the ceremony had nothing to do with party politics. It was a recognition of the fact that Sir John Macdonald had grasped the central idea that the British Empire was the greatest secular agency for good now known to mankind, and had striven that Canada should live under the influence of that idea. The flag of the Empire, he added, would be worthless if it were a mere symbol of conquest. It was valued as a symbol of solemn obligations, representing everywhere peace, civilization and commerce and it was a negation of narrowness in the gospel of humanity. Truth understands that little bust of £1,500, will go to the Dowager Duchess of Sutherland under the late Duke's will, and says it will take the Sutherland estate three years to recover from the drain.

It is reported that Sir Algernon Northwick will leave Dunrobin Castle, one of the seats of the late Duke of Sutherland. Truth to-day mentions another bogus society of science, letters and art, similar to the International Society of Science, Literature and Art, the council of which, including Sir Gilbert Campbell, were recently convicted of swindling and sent to prison. Dr. Albert Sturman recently founded the Besses' Society, of which he made himself Secretary. Sir Henry Gould, an impetuous Irish baronet, 77 years old, was the President of this society. The names of the Earl of Mar and Sir Arthur Temple Clark, baronet, appear in the society's circulars as patrons. They probably never even heard of the concern.

SOCIAL CONGRESS.

BANDONING FEELING AMONG THE GERMAN REFORMERS.

BERLIN, Nov. 16.—Although Herr Singer has been chosen President of the Socialist party by the Berlin convention, there has been much opposition to him among some of the leaders of the various sections. He is a Jew and the moneyed man of the party. Although by his retirement from business Singer lost his ability to provide such large sums as formerly for the party's use, he still has considerable amounts, and from time to time augments the Bank of England fund. The principal change against Singer is that he is trying to turn the party into an organization for the benefit of the Hebrew race generally. He is accused of representing within the party the Jewish Alliance of Paris, which therefore controls, or is about to control, the Social Democratic party of Germany.

WOMEN OUGHT TO KNOW.

There is a good and sufficient reason for all your misery. The cloud hangs over you dark and heavy, hope is almost dead.

You have suffered so long; you can get no relief, yet relief is close at hand if you will only accept it with the faith that has saved thousands.

You may have displacement of the womb, or some form of Ovarian trouble; small tumors may be forming in the Uterus, or you may be approaching "the change of life."

Lydia E. Pinkham's "Vegetable Compound" goes straight to the seat of trouble, dissolves and expels tumors from the uterus, removes backache and invigorates the entire system.

considerable amounts, and from time to time augments the Bank of England fund. The principal change against Singer is that he is trying to turn the party into an organization for the benefit of the Hebrew race generally. He is accused of representing within the party the Jewish Alliance of Paris, which therefore controls, or is about to control, the Social Democratic party of Germany.

The occasional deposits made in London by Singer are said to come from the advances, which secure thereby increasing influence and representation in the councils of the leaders, and is turning the party to account in protecting Hebrews from popular bigotry. But Singer is a politician and has managed to keep down the prejudice against him, or rather to turn it to his account, by demonstrating that he was being persecuted by his rivals. His aim has been to supplant Liebknecht and Bebel as leaders of the Social Democracy.

A report has just been published of the work done in Germany by the Social Democrats. After touching shortly on the subject of this year's festival the report goes on to speak of the relations existing between German, Austrian and French Social Democrats. Though the social movements in Germany and Austria are much more intimately connected than in Germany and France, the presence of a French representative at Halle and that of Herr Liebknecht at Marseilles have proved the solidarity of the international bond.

The revenue at the disposal of the party from Oct. 1, 1891, to Sept. 30, 1892, amounted to 211,888 marks, and the expenditure was 198,662 marks, leaving after the deduction of rather more than 27,000 marks for investments, a sum of about 1,500 marks in hand.

The party's expenditure is divided into twenty organs in the press, whereof twenty-two are political dailies. The subsidies granted to some of these forms, however, a considerable item in the expenditure, amounting to nearly 60,000 marks.

The policy advocated by Herr Liebknecht, the leading spirit of the radical wing of Social Democracy, cannot be better illustrated than by quoting the speech he delivered at the recent Socialist convention at Marseilles, in which he said to his French brethren:

"For us Socialists there exists no such thing as nationality. We are essentially internationalists. For us there exist but two nations—the capitalist nation, by which we mean the bourgeoisie or property-owning class, on one hand, and on the other, the nation of the proletarians, by which we mean the mass of the disinherited, the laboring class, and to that second class we all belong—you French Socialists and we German Socialists."

"We form one nation. The workmen of every country form a compact nation, which is opposed to the other equally compact nation, which also exists in every country. Between you Frenchmen and us Germans there exists a wide river of blood. We are innocent of that blood. It has been shed by our common foes, and it cannot be held to be a barrier of hate between you and us."

"We protested against the fratricidal war of 1870, just as you yourselves protested against it, and our attitude as regards war remains unchanged. The bourgeoisie, which endeavors to divide us, tells you in its newspapers that we have changed; that we are no longer the Socialists of 1870-71; that we were in the beginning we are now, and ever shall be—revolutionists and internationalists. At our last congress we accepted a more revolutionary programme than the one which we accepted in 1870-71, and we are proud of our solidarity with the proletarians of all countries."

"We, the international Socialists, form a huge army and you Frenchmen, we Germans, and Socialists of other countries are our different brigades, divisions, army corps of that great host. And, believe me, we who fought Prince Bismarck and beat him after a twenty-five years' struggle are not to be subjected, not to be turned from our purpose by any power in the world. We are prepared to shed the last drop of our blood for the Socialist cause, and we mean to prosecute the struggle for emancipation until we achieve victory."

GENERAL FOREIGN NEWS.

THE PANAMA CANAL SCANDAL ABOUT TO BE UNVEILED.

PARIS, Nov. 16.—The Council of Ministers has decided under the responsibility of the Ministry of Justice directing M. Ricard to proceed against the Panama Co., M. De Lesseps, the three administrators and all the contractors who are to be made parties to the proceedings. A ministerial crisis is imminent and a great scandal will undoubtedly be the outcome. The ministry was divided upon the question. There were frequent and violent debates, the stormy scene having been caused by M. Viette, M. Ricard and M. Bourgeois, Minister of Public Instruction, who strongly urged the prosecutions. Others were opposed to that course for political reasons. Saturday the scene was so violent between M. Bourgeois and M. Rouvier, Minister of Finance, that President Carnot was obliged to interfere.

BRITISH OVERSEAS.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 16.—A number of Russian Poles recently complained to Gen. Gourko Governor-General of Warsaw, of the brutal treatment to which they were subjected by the German overseers of the factories in which they were employed. They also complained that the overseers dismissed the employees on the slightest pretext. Gen. Gourko found that the complaints were well grounded and he has issued an order to the owners of factories not to employ men for overseers unless they are able to speak the Russian and Polish languages perfectly. He also ordered that the overseers now employed who do not speak these languages be dismissed on Jan. 1.

SOUTH AMERICAN NEWS.

VALPARAISO, Nov. 16.—Vicente Montero has been appointed Minister of the Interior by President Falcón of Chile.

News comes of further fighting in Rio Grande do Sul. The Federal forces attacked Villa Rosario near San Gabriel yesterday, killing a number of Republicans and taking others prisoners. The Republicans repulsed the Federal forces at Dom Pedro's Archito has been occupied by the Federalists.

A number of Republican chiefs are hiding along the frontier. There is much anger against the Federalists for the complicity in allowing the Federalists to organize their forces on Uruguayan territory.

WATCHING THE ANARCHISTS.

VIENNA, Nov. 16.—The recent explosion in Prague has stirred the Austrian police into renewed activity against Anarchists and Socialists. A large number of arrests of extremists has already been made in this city, Prague and Graz. The Berlin and London police are co-operating with the Viennese police in tracking Anarchists.

DAMAGED BY FLOODS.

ROME, Nov. 16.—Floods are causing a great amount of damage on the island of Elba. Several bridges on the main roads running across the island have been washed away. One whole side of Mount San Giovanni is undermined and threatens to fall at any moment. If it does fall it will crush out of existence a number of houses lying at its base. The occupants of the threatened houses have fled to places of safety.

RAYACHOL'S ACCOMPLISH.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—Sir John Bridge to-day granted in order for the extradition of France of Jean Pierre Francois, alias Johnson, alias Brehl, accused of being an accomplice of Rayachol, the Anarchist, and of having caused the explosion in the Vary restaurant, where Rayachol had been arrested.

WHAT A LITTLE WILL DO.

A Few Suggestions as to the Great Effects of Little Things.

A little care will save you much annoyance.

A little neglect of some simple duty may lead to a disaster which would impair your life.

A little kindness to a fellow creature may cause you little effort and may result in untold good.

A little attention to the right thing at the right time may result in great things to you at the proper time.

A little chill may seem trifling, but it may be the first symptom of pneumonia, possibly of death.

A little prompt attention when you first feel chilly by all means the thing you should do and do at once.

A little pure medicinal stimulant taken promptly will drive away the chill, restore the circulation and warm the blood.

A little reflection will show you that only a pure, medicinal stimulant will answer and that there is but one, which is Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

A little frizziness when the druggist or grocer tries to sell you some so-called whiskey which has no merit, will save you much annoyance and perhaps preserve your health.

A little constant use of this pure medicinal stimulant will tend to help your health and keep you in a condition to resist the sudden changes of the season.

The Housewife Will Find Them an Interesting Study Just Now.

There is one thing that costs the average woman more sleepless nights than the set of her gowns. It is the hang of her parlor curtains. By her critical friends the former is regarded as an index to her character. With equal harshness the success of her household administration is measured by the draperies which give the finishing touch of art to domestic environment.

This is the distracting season of the year when curtains, portieres, draperies, scarfs and festoonings of every description must be rehung and elaborated upon. Hence the necessity of studying just now.

OFFERED IN THE POST-DISPATCH CHILDREN'S CHRISTMAS CONTEST.

A GREAT PLAN TO MAKE A HAPPY CHRISTMAS FOR BOYS AND GIRLS.

ALWAYS foremost in conceiving new ideas and putting them into execution, the POST-DISPATCH now has another one. It will interest all of the readers of the paper, particularly, perhaps, the younger ones.

The POST-DISPATCH intends to make its young readers a present of $1,000 in cash. The money will be paid just before Christmas, so that it may be used to buy Christmas presents. The conditions are so simple that any boy or girl may get the $1,000 or a part of it, with a little effort for the next two months.

Here is the proposition: The paper has set aside $1,000 in cash to be distributed in prizes as follows:

One Present of $100; Two Presents of $50 Each; Four Presents of $25 Each; Ten Presents of $15 Each; Twenty-Five Presents of $10 Each; Sixty Presents of $5 Each.

In all there will be 102 presents, amounting to $1,000.

CONDITIONS OF THE CONTEST.

The prizes will be awarded without fail. Their distribution depends on the number of POST-DISPATCH prize coupons collected and sent to this office by 9 o'clock in the evening of December 22. The Coupon will appear in each issue of the POST-DISPATCH up to December 22, and including that number. The one who sends to the POST-DISPATCH office the largest number of these coupons cut from the POST-DISPATCH, will receive the first present, $100 in cash. The two persons who send in the next largest numbers of coupons will get $50 apiece. The four persons who send in the next largest numbers of coupons will get $25 apiece. The ten who send in the next largest numbers will get $15 apiece. The twenty-five who send the twenty-five next largest packages of coupons will get $10 apiece. And the sixty whose packages of coupons are next in size will get $5 apiece.

HINTS FOR THE COMPETITORS.

Each package of coupons must be enclosed in an envelope with the number of coupons within, and the name and address of the sender written on the outside. All competitors must send in their collection of coupons in one batch on the last day of the contest. No one is barred from the competition. Its conditions are likely to be inviting to boys and girls.

No conditions are made as to the collection of the coupons. It may be done by clubs or individuals. Or a boy or girl may make a canvass of the block in which he or she lives and get possession of coupons from all the subscribers of the paper living there. Or the coupon may be got by the competitor from the business houses where the paper is left or the offices in the big buildings. The boy in a down town office, or the typewriter can adopt this method to the best advantage.

A little energetic work in this contest will bring a satisfactory return to the competitor. No person connected with the POST-DISPATCH will be permitted to contest or take any part in the collection of coupons for contestants.

The purpose of this contest is to interest the boys and girls, and no one will be permitted to simply buy papers in large batches. No order made directly on the office or through agents for this purpose will be honored.
